

GLOBAL EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Global Pension

An innovative and integrated global solution for delivering local pensions.

At a glance

Global Pension aims to assist multinational companies deliver efficient, defined contribution pension solutions to their employees.

In a single offering, the solution uniquely links global coordination, reporting, and service with proven local providers, global asset managers and insurers.

Global resources

The combined resources of Allianz Group's local subsidiaries and global asset managers provide a global defined contribution pension proposition, serviced and delivered locally.

Global Pension is a fully customizable solution to meet your specific needs: The central coordination of local solutions helps multinational companies increase governance and efficiency across defined contribution (DC) and legacy defined benefits (DB) retirement plans.

Global coordination

Global governance and central reporting

Local pension expertise

Excellence in delivering compliant local pensions

Opportunity to pool assets

Economies of scale, leading to significantly reduced fees, whenever possible

A network of global and local resources will support you every step of the way in the design and delivery of this solution.

Your contact for further information

Cyril Samson
Managing Director, Head of Sales
cyril.samson@allianz.com

